

David has received awards in recognition of his leadership and partnership accomplishments:

- 1996 Warren Featherstone Reid Award for Excellence in Health Care, Washington State Governor Mike Lowry
- 2013 Visionary Leader, National Council of Community Behavioral Healthcare
- 2013 Evergreen Leadership Award (“outstanding innovation and agility in service to his community”), Washington Nonprofits
- 2014 Alumni Award for Professional Achievement, Seattle University
- 2018 Honoring LGBTQ Business Leaders: Outstanding Voices, Puget Sound Business Journal

During David’s tenure as CEO, Navos has received awards for excellence:

- 2005 Excellence Award for Clinical Programming – Expanding Community Services, King County Mental Health, Chemical Abuse and Dependency Services Division
- Outstanding Older Adult Services Programming*, Washington State Department of Social and Health Services, Mental Health Division
- 2009 Honorable Mention as one of the medium-sized business “Employers of the Year for People with Disabilities,” Governor’s Employment Initiative
- 2012 Light the Fire Healthcare Organization of the Year Seattle Metropolitan Magazine
- 2012 Excellence in Clinical Programming – Infant Mental Health, King County Mental Health, Chemical Abuse and Dependency Services Division
- 2013 Non-profit of the Year, Seattle Human Services Coalition
- 2013 Employer of the Year, Washington Community Mental Health Council
- 2013 Burien Non-Profit of the Year, City of Burien
- 2015 Community Impact Development of the Year: Navos Behavioral Healthcare Center for Children, Youth and Families, National Association for Industrial and Office Parks
- 2016 Community Health Leadership Award, Washington State Hospital Association
- 2017 Innovation in Health Care Delivery, Leaders in Health Care Award, Seattle Business Magazine